

Penalties

The range of penalties which may be imposed by the Senate Discipline Committee for breaches of academic regulations shall be circumscribed only by the requirement that such penalty or penalties be of an academic nature and, without restricting the generality of the foregoing, may include any one or more of:

- i. notation of the fact of discipline on the offender's transcript for a period of one (1) or more years, but not exceed five (5) years;
- ii. repeat of the assignment that triggered the discipline;
- iii. a failing grade or mark or assessment in the piece of work triggering the discipline;
- iv. failure of the course or seminar or program;
- v. failure of the academic year;
- vi. suspension for an academic term or year (to a maximum suspension of three (3) academic years);
- vii. expulsion from the University;
- viii. loss of a current or continuing scholarship, or both, or loss of eligibility to receive or to maintain scholarships or prizes or bursaries; and
- ix. removal from the Dean's List.

Penalties for breaches of the Code of Student Conduct are set out below under "Code of Student Conduct: Procedures".

Appeals

Appeals from decisions of the Senate Discipline Committee may be made to a Senate Discipline Appeal Board, but only on the limited grounds defined under "Function" of a Senate Discipline Appeal Board (see below). Decisions of a Senate Discipline Appeal Board are final and binding on all parties. At the time of filing the appeal a student must specifically indicate the facts and allegations that will form the basis of the appeal. An appeal will be limited to matters so alleged.

Composition

The Senate Discipline Committee comprises ten representatives of the faculty elected by Senate for staggered three-year terms, one of whom shall be the Chair (chosen annually by the Committee), and five representatives of the student body. A student who is a member of the Judicial Board of the DSU may not at the same time be a member of the Senate Discipline Committee. The Senate Nominating Committee shall arrange for nominations to fill casual vacancies for the remainder of the vacant term.
